FAST RACING AT AQUEDUCT.

RYE WINS THE BIG RACE OF THE DAY AFTER A HARD STRETCH DRIVE.

Fifteen Thousand People Attend—Barbary Belle Ties
a Track Record—Miller Fails in Five Races—
Yama Christy Takes the Woodside.

New York, November 3.—The Queens County Jockey Club's big and pretentious race course at Aqueduct, remodeled during the summer on the latest and most approved lines, inaugurated its autumn meeting of eleven days under exceptionally favorable auspices. Fifteen thousand spectators were in attendance, Indian summer weather prevailed and the card was of the best that has been provided for racegoers this season. There were three important stake fixtures including the Creedmoor, at five furlongs, for two-year-olds, and the Aqueduct Handicap of approximately a gross value of $3,000. Other attractive features were a steeplechase over the two mile course, a seven furlong handicap for all ages, and a couple of selling races.

Rye, the diminutive Bowery champion, captured the big stake in gallant style. The erratic Finn had the mount and the layers ventured abnormally long odds against him. Stake horses or selling players, they all look alike to Rye and he drew out where the prize is hung up. It was a thrilling struggle all through the long stretch between four—Ginette, Oxford, Bad News and the ultimate victor, Barbary Belle made amends for her recent defeat at Jamaica by winning the two-year-old stake, all the way in time equalling the track record, 59.4.

Three horses fought it out practically abreast during the closing of the stretch after having put up an interesting struggle through the miles of the Woodside Steeplechase. Yama Christy scored by a narrow margin from Sandalwood. The rider of the latter claimed a foul against the winner, but it was not allowed.

Only two favorites were successful and Miller rode five losers; all were at liberal prices in the betting. Finn and Homer took two each and Ross one, all of which was gall and wormwood to the champion American jockey.

The poolroom people dismantled their lookout tower at Jamaica, hauled it over in sections to Aqueduct and were busily engaged in erecting it just outside the paddock, when suddenly the police swamped down on them and hauled them off to jail. The arrests were made on complaint of not having taken out a building permit.

John W. Gates, assisted by his principal betting commissioner, C. H. Smith, was just before the racing today, over at the clubhouse engaged in the pleasant occupation of counting up his winnings of yesterday. One roll contained exactly forty-four one-thousand dollar bills. There were also in evidence a number of checks, some for large amounts. One for $17,500 it is asserted, being among the number. Mr. Gates beat the card of seven races yesterday. He admitted as much last night at the Waldorf. His actual winnings are not known.

Harry Kuhl is in New York soliciting entries for the City Park track at New Orleans.

J. J. Donohue, a well known Chicago bookmaker, will make book at Oakland this winter and will cut in on the opening day.

AMATEURS RIDE WELL AT PIMLICO.

Baltimore, Md., November 3.—This was a day of days at the Pimlico course. What a fine time men riders performing in the Caswell Cup and with the Green Spring Valley Steeplechase down for decision, it was but natural that one of the best crowds that ever packed a grandstand and lawn was on hand. It gave a line on what the association can expect when it builds its new and modern course at Haleshorpe.

Only two favorites won out of the six that ran, but there was not a race that the layers did not lose to. This was especially true of the one won by Hooray. Quadrille, the favorite, was not much in demand, while there was quiet backing for Tony Aste's Hooray. The latter was at the enticing price of 15 to 1 and he won the book lost heavily. Quadrille got away badly, in fact, was practically left at the post.

The excellent weather had dried the course out thoroughly. The steeplechase was one of the best seen this season in the east, and the Caswell Cup race was of the same order, neither being decided until in the very last stages of the struggle.

Mr. James Young, of Philadelphia, who has been prominent at all of the second circuit meetings in the east, presented Dion Kerr and Mr. Tucker with diamond scarf pins as a reward for their excellent riding in the two races.

OWNERS AND HORSES AT NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, La., November 3.—Scenes of animation greet the eye everywhere at the City Park racetrack and at the Fair Grounds track. Sand is being spread on both tracks at the rate of about eighty yards a day. Both Superintendent William Meyers, of the Fair Grounds track, and Superintendent G. F. Wolgamuth, of the City Park track, predict that the racing season, which opens in New Orleans, November 24, and extends till early spring, or 120 days, will be the best ever seen in the south. All stalls have been engaged at both tracks, and horses, some of them well-known racers, are arriving daily. There are now more than 200 horses in the stables.

Some of those now here with strings of horses are: Doc Hollenback, with nine; W. S. Williams, nine; D. L. Snow, three; T. Ryan, four; A. McMullen, five; James Robertson, eight; William Piper, three; Letteller & Picheoup, three; J. W. O'Neill, five; William Newman, five; J. Egan, two; R. E. Watkins, two here now and sixteen coming; James Fleming, five, including several well-known jumpers; James Davis, six; J. U. Strode has a string now in the City Park stables. W. B. Bancroft has ten horses at the City Park stables.

BREWER GERST'S MANY YEARLINGS.

Lexington, Ky., November 3.—Of the fifteen yearlings here in charge of George Ham, which are owned by the Nashville turfman, W. Gerst, the brown filly by Gallantry—Enough, by Macdonald, has worked the most impressively. She picked up 125 pounds and ran a quarter in 23.4 seconds, traveling the first eighth in 1.1. She is a half sister to Karama. Gerst has thirty-five other yearlings at Nashville and so has an even half hundred colts and fillies from which to select the two-year-old stars of his stable in 1907.

Trainer J. W. May took to Memphis with him the two-year-old chestnut colt King Castle, which has been out of training since the meeting at Memphis last spring. He is a son of Gold Heels and Sister Tenny, and May expects him to be a good three-year-old in 1907.

Branca, the older star of William Gerst's stable, has been gelded and his owner believes he will be a better horse than ever next season. Gerst is going to keep no regular stallion at his Tennessee breeding plant. His select band of broodmares will annually be mated to the public stallions of note standing for service in Kentucky and Tennessee.

MINNIE ADAMS RUNS AWAY FROM TARTAN.

Pretension in Another Good Performance—Nicol Allowed to Ride for Fred Cook.

Cincinnati, O., November 3.—Mild weather and a good card were instrumental in attracting a big crowd to Latonia this afternoon. The handicap at one mile was the stellar offering of the afternoon and brought together a good field of horses including Minnie Adams, and her recent conqueror, Tartan. At the weights and with Nicol up the Cook filly was considered best and liberally backed. She won all the way from Noel, a well backed long shot. Debar finishing third and Tartan outside of the money.

Buchanan's presence in the saddle on Pretension caused the price about him to recede at an alarming rate in the sprint race. Opening at 7 to 10 he drifted to 7 to 5. Judge Price was quick to take cognizance of the raise in price and cautioned Buchanan when on the way to the post to do his best. The horse acted fractionally while at the barrier and unseated the rider while in a tantrum, Buchanan however retained a good hold of the reins thereby preventing him from running away. He followed the leaders closely to the stretch turn where he moved up fast and won drawing away from the lightly-weighted Grace Kimball. Hazelthorpe, which was backed by the sharpshooters, ran disappointingly and failed to finish in the money.

The following horses were sold in the paddock today: Wool Soap for $70, to J. J. Flannigan; Before for $35, to J. C. Ferriss, Jr.; Mayor Duncan for $85, to G. H. McGuire; Leo Bright for $305, to A. K. Miller; Light Opera for $45, to J. C. Ferriss, Jr.; Windshield for $50, to J. C. Ferriss, Jr.

The judges relented somewhat in their ruling against jockey Nicol and allowed him to ride for his contract employer. The crack rider rode both his employer's horses, Minnie Adams and Tom Dolan to victory.

Crafty and John Kaufman furnished a close finish in the second race, Crafty taking the purse in the final stride. He was bid up to $1,000 an advance of $400 over his entered price and secured by R. L. Thomas. "Kansas" Price in retaliation claimed John Kaufman, paying for him $1,000.

Hadur, the beaten favorite in the closing race, was claimed by F. W. Schmidt, owner of Gladiator, for $800.

J. C. Milam closed a contract today for the services of D. Austin to ride for him this winter at New Orleans.

CITY PARK JOCKEY CLUB'S RICH STAKES.

The conditions of twenty-one stakes offered by the City Park Jockey Club, of New Orleans, appear elsewhere in this issue of Daily Racing Form. Entries will close at midnight of Saturday, November 10. This means that owners who intend to race their horses at New Orleans have no great amount of time to waste before making their stake entries. Racing should be of the best at New Orleans during the coming winter. The two jockey clubs there will alternate and owners will have a chance to race for the stakes offered by both, a distinct advantage as compared with last winter.

Of the twenty-one stakes four will be run this year, viz.:

December 10—Initial Handicap, all ages, $1,500 added; 1 mile.

December 15—Test Stakes, all ages, $1,000 added; 3/4 mile.

December 19—Planters Stakes, two-year-olds, $1,000 added; 7/8 mile.

December 22—Cypress Handicap, three-year-olds and over, $1,500 added; 1 1/8 miles.

The other events will be run off in the course of the winter and spring of 1907, and together with the dates set for their decision are the following:

January 8—Old Hickory Stakes, three-year-olds and over, $1,250 added; 1 1/4 miles.

January 12—Tulane Selling Stakes, three-year-olds and over, $1,000 added; 1 mile.

January 16—Cosmopolitan Hotel Hurdle, three-year-olds and over, $1,000 added; 1 1/4 miles.

January 19—King Cotton Stakes, three-year-olds and over, $1,250 added; 1 mile.

February 4—Lagarde Stakes, three-year-olds, $1,000 added; 1 mile.

February 9—Heaslip Cup, three-year-olds and over, $1,500 added; 2 miles.

February 12—Rex Handicap, three-year-olds and over, $2,500 added; 1 1/8 miles.

February 16—American Turf Association Handicap, three-year-olds and over, $2,000 added; 3 miles.

March 6—National Stakes, two-year-olds, $1,000 added; 3 1/2 furlongs.

March 9—Pickwick Steeplechase, three-year-olds and upward, $1,000 added; full course.

March 13—Louisiana Stakes, two-year-olds, $1,000 added; 3 1/2 furlongs.

March 16—Derby, three-year-olds, $5,000 added; 1 1/4 miles.

April 3—Magnolia Selling Stakes, three-year-olds and over, $1,000 added; 7/8 mile.

April 6—Lyric Handicap, three-year-olds and over, $1,000 added; 1 1/2 miles.

April 10—Juvenile Stakes, two-year-olds, $1,000 added; 1 1/2 miles.

April 13—Ladies Stakes, two-year-old fillies, $1,000 added; 1 1/2 mile.

April 13—Orleans Handicap, three-year-olds and over, $1,000 added; 3/4 mile.

Secretary Kuhl is skillful in devising conditions attractive to owners and has provided well for all ages and classes of horses in the foregoing list of stakes. Consideration of their conditions is recommended to all owners and liberal entries suggested.

SURPLUS WATER IN AUSTRALIA.

Floods have recently caused extensive damage in Australia, the race course at Flemington being completely submerged. The waters broke over the eastern bank of the Saltwater River, and in a few minutes the race course was completely under water, and in some places there must have been at the full flood a depth of ten feet, the shoulder of the seven furlong post, ten feet from the ground, being just visible over the water. The flood spread to the grandstand, invading the rooms, and when the secretary of the club visited the course the depth of water in the public luncheon-room was about six feet. The seats and tables in the members' luncheon paddock were floating about. The rain gauge on the race course recorded 2.39 points, but it was the great rush of water from the northern reaches of the Saltwater that caused the damage.

On the course itself the third jump on the steeplechase track, a log fence, was bodily lifted and carried close up to the stone wall. The stewards' stand and the judges' box stood out spectrally over the waste of waters.

JOHN SMULSKI'S FAST HALF BROTHER.

Lexington, Ky., November 3.—The best work done by the Paul J. Rainey yearlings in the stable of trainer J. W. May was reeled off by the bay colt, by Star Shoot—Ellangowan, the dam of John Smulski. He worked a quarter in 23.4 seconds, running the final eighth in 1.1. He is a half brother to Tenny, and May expects him to be a good three-year-old in 1907.

Branca, the older star of William Gerst's stable, has been gelded and his owner believes he will be a better horse than ever next season. Gerst is going to keep no regular stallion at his Tennessee breeding plant. His select band of broodmares will annually be mated to the public stallions of note standing for service in Kentucky and Tennessee.

Winner—B. c. by Atheling—Kisbern (trained by A. G. Weston).
Went to post at 2:16. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Tudor seems to improve with each race, showed much the most speed and won as his rider pleased. Nellie Racine ran a good race, was contented all the way and was eased up right at the end. The Wrestler had no mishaps, was away well and in a prominent position to the stretch, then tired. Cave Adsum lacked early speed and the ride on him was not a very energetic one. Dankali showed speed.

Winner—Ch. c. by Plaudit—Readina (trained by C. H. Diebold).

Went to post at 2:42. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second the same. Hooray improved quickly and ran an unexpectedly good race, showed the most speed and easily raced Scarfell into defeat. The latter had no mishaps, broke running and held on resolutely in second place, but was tiring at the end. Incantation cut up at the post and ran a good race, but tired in the final drive when it seemed she would be second. Annetta Lady did not run her race, is at her best in mud, but her showing on a fast track should have been better. Quadrille got a poor start and was four lengths behind the others in the first eighth, but made up ground next to the rail and quit in the stretch.

Scratched—65065 Belle Strome, 114; 64946 Nattie Bumpo, 106; 64966 Ossineke, 96; 62604 JUDGE White, 96.

Overweights—Hooray, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. g. by Atheling—Maggie Weir (trained by E. Hanna).

Went to post at 3:10. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Weir some ran a very good race, showed the most speed nearly all the way and his rider virtually stole the race on the far turn by suddenly drawing into a long lead. Niblick was overhauling him at the end under a drive was best and should have won. The Veiled Lady ran fairly well and will probably do better soon. It was a poor race for Knight of Rhodes, which ran well for three-quarters and quit badly.

DETAILS OF THE GARNISH CASE.

"The race won by Garnish at Jamaica, October 23, was the direct cause of the ruling off of R. L. Rogers and John Wilson, but it was not the primary one," says the New York World in recounting the banishment of the two men and the horse on a charge of using drugs. "The trouble began at Brighton Beach, July 31, in a two-horse contest between Red Friar and Garnish. On that day the latter horse was examined for 'dope' by the veterinary surgeon engaged by the Jockey Club stewards. Garnish had acted in a strange manner. He made the running two lengths before Red Friar to the head of the stretch, where he quit suddenly. When he returned to the scales the officials noticed that the horse trembled violently and could scarcely stand. His mouth was severely burned. These sores, the veterinary surgeon, who examined Garnish said, were due in his opinion to the use of chloral. In his report the horse doctor stated that the horse showed all the symptoms of chloral poisoning.

"R. L. Rogers, the owner of Garnish was called before the stewards and questioned regarding the condition of his horse. He denied the use of drugs on his racer and placed the responsibility for the use of the speed-producing stimulant, if any was used, on John Wilson, the trainer. Rogers stoutly maintained that he had nothing whatever to do with the training of the horse and said that frequently he was not near Garnish for many days. "This shifting of responsibility to Wilson made the latter very angry. Hot words passed between owner and trainer, and the latter was discharged. In revenge he paid James R. Keene, Vice-Chairman of the Jockey Club, a visit and exposed Rogers by showing Keene the recipe for the 'dope' which was injected into Garnish at certain periods when he raced.

"Keene laid bare the whole case to the Jockey Club stewards. The latter determined to place a watch on the horse, owner and ex-trainer so as to catch them using the drug. The trio were placed under the surveillance of Pinkerton detectives, who watched them closely for over a month. During this period Rogers and Wilson patched up their trouble, and while the latter no longer posed as the trainer of Garnish, he was frequently seen in his old employer's company. Rogers had charge of the horse and prepared him for the third race at Jamaica, October 23. This was the race made memorable by the stewards, who suspended Jockey Radtke for his indifferent horsemanship on Tommy Waddell.

"Garnish, heavily backed, made practically all the running and won by open daylight from Delphie and Cressina. After the race he was placed in the horse car to be shipped to Sheepshead Bay, where he was stabled. The detectives found Rogers and Wilson busily engaged superintending the horse's care and transportation. This was the evidence needed by the Jockey Club—that there was collusion between the men. When the detectives reported this to the stewards, they ruled them off. "Garnish has always raced at local tracks in the name of Mrs. R. L. Rogers, wife of the man debarred from the turf. In order to have her name appear as the owner, Mrs. Rogers must have proved to the satisfaction of the turf authorities that she had at least a half interest in the horse. Her name was not mentioned in the rulings. What horsemen are anxious to know now is: Will Mrs. Rogers be ruled off? If the Jockey Club decides on this measure she will be the first woman ever debarred from racing horses in the east."

Winner—B. m. by Lettison—Isabel, by Nero (trained by W. Stueve).
Went to post at 2:14. At post 14 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Belltoone ran as if best, showed his speed and won all the way with plenty in reserve. Field Lark, away well, ran in close pursuit of the leader to the stretch, where she tired slightly, but was best of the others. French Nun, running in improved form, came fast through the stretch and is a rank in-and-outer. Lady Carol had no mishap and tired after forward contention for a half. Posing tired, as usual. Telepathy got away in the forward direction and showed improved form. Marvel P. tired fast after going a quarter and is best on a soft track. Operator ran away a mile and a half before the start.
Overweights—Telepathy, 34 pounds; Shipwreck, 3; Hyacinth, 4; Bluster, 23.

65345 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. (1:12—3—100.) Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Selling. Net value to winner $300.

CRAFTY

3 to 1 Won.

We advised every client to bet the week's winnings on Crafty and to take any old price. We knew that owner "Kansas" Price was going to unload on this speedy Silver Fox colt once more.

Look Over My Record for Last Week:

Friday, Nov. 2 . . . ELLIOTT 4-1 WON
Thursday, Nov. 1 . . . CRAFTY 9-2 WON
Wednesday, Oct. 31 . . . TANAGER 3-4 WON
Tuesday, Oct. 30 . . . BELDEN 6-1 2nd
Monday, Oct. 29 . . . DARTHULA 8-5 WON

The above were given to win and win only. This sort of information is always obtainable from us.

Monday and Tuesday

Will Be Banner Days For My Clients.

I know of a certain trick from a betting stable that will be cut loose at 8-1. Tuesday something choice that has had a "prep." under cover for this special race, as the work was done away from prying eyes. Odds of 10-1 are expected. Now is the time to subscribe. Don't waste a day in delay. Now is your opportunity.

THURSDAY 20-1

Certainly this bird will lose his field. All the trainer will tell the jockey is: "Get him off good and take a good, strong hold of his head the first part of the race and when you turn in the stretch let him down, but don't let him win too far, as I don't want this bird run up." If you play the races you understand what this means.

The Original Publication. Established April, 1904

If you have been losing on the races why not try a winning proposition for a change? The Review contains more and better information than any other publication of its kind and the reports published by it are more reliable because its representatives at the various tracks have had more and longer experience than any other persons in the business. It gives the workouts at the various tracks and, besides, publishes a free special in code or by number each day in Daily Racing Form, Chicago, and New York Morning Telegraph. The Review is on sale in all important cities in the United States and Canada and can be had for 25 cents per copy, or $1.00 per month. If you have never tried it, send $1.00 for a month's subscription. You will find it a good investment. Those who are looking for one good bet a day should subscribe for our daily one-horse wire. We have several good ones for next week. The first one goes Wednesday and should be around 10 to 1. This one has been privately prepared and a killing will be attempted. The price of this service is $5.00 for six wires. Send now and do not lose out on these good ones. Make all remittances payable to
